- How about leaving your home, family, and job all on the same day?
- How about going back to your beginning and be born into poverty with your family on the run from the law?
- How about leaving your relationship with the godly people here and spend all of your time with prostitutes, drug addicts, and the homeless?
- How about permitting people to call you names, lie about you, and throw garbage on you?
- How about taking the place of a murderer sentenced to death on the gurney and taking his needle in your own arm, and while dying, listen to him laugh at you for taking his place?

How Far Will I Go to Find Jesus?

- Jesus did those things to find us
 - He left the glory of heaven to come here to save us.
 - He accepted His own birth in a smelly stable to live among us.
 - He shared His Divine perfection with imperfect people like us.
 - He allowed Satan to tempt and attack Him so we would believe He understands us.
 - He preached a message He knew would lead to His death
 - He allowed people to curse and abuse Him rather than killing them in anger.
 - He died in His enemies' place while they were doing this to Him.
