2021 Report For The Trilacoochee Church Of Christ

- Authorized by God
- How the work of the Lord is to be supported
- The uses made of the contribution as instructed in The New Testament
- How Evangelism is to be supported
- How Edification and Limited Benevolence are to be supported
- The scriptures authorize a public report of the work of the local church

How the Work is Supported

- The work of the Lord is supported by the freewill offerings of Christians, as instructed in the Word
 - 2Cor. 8:1-5 - “Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God.”

How the Work is Supported

- The members of this congregation do so with purpose of heart, pleased to do the will of God without public acknowledgement
 - Matt. 6:1-4 - “Take heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. Therefore, when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.”

The Uses Made Of The Contribution As Instructed In The New Testament

- Evangelism: teaching the gospel to the lost
- Edification: building up Christians through preaching and teaching (includes providing and maintaining a place for worship and Bible study)
- Limited Benevolence: ministering to the physical needs of poor saints

How Evangelism is Supported

- Phil. 4:16-17 - “For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account.”
- 2Tim. 2:2 - “And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

How Evangelism is Supported

- But how are we to fund the preaching of the Gospel?
- What are the scripturally authorized means and methods of supporting the work of the church?
 - 1Cor. 16:1-2 - “Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come.”

2Corinthians 8:1-6

- “Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2 that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. 3 For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, 4 imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5 And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well.”

2Corinthians 8:7-12

- “But as you abound in everything--in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us--see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich. 10 And in this I give advice: It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and were desiring to do a year ago; 11 but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to desire it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have. 12 For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.”

How Edification is Supported

- But who is to support this work and who is to do this work?
- Do the scriptures supply a plan?

How Edification is Supported

- Every member of a local congregation has a Christ-ordained role and purpose
 - Eph. 4:11-13, 16 - “And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ... 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.”

The Bible Authorizes a Public Report

- Do the scriptures authorize a public report of the work of the local church?
- Should we keep these matters hidden or speak openly of them?

The Bible Authorizes a Public Report

- Acts 14:21-23, 26-27 - “And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, ‘We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God.’ So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed... 26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. Now when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.”

2021 Events and Work

- We experienced a sharp reduction in attendance that carried over from 2020 due to the COVID crisis; however, by the middle of the year the attendance rose to about 85% of what it was in 2019.
- We noted a significant increase in our offerings in the second half of the year and ended the year with a substantial increase in total offerings.
- We experienced the passing of four souls precious and dear to our hearts: S.J. Barthle, Dwight Boyett, Jim Cooper, and Robert Luffman.
- We witnessed the baptism of three who have committed their lives to the service of our Lord: Verlyn Bullington, Jeff Huffer, and Holly Huffer.

2021 Events and Work

- We witnessed a few persons restored by confession including Joel Morrison and Phyllis Henderson, and we were moved and refreshed by their return.
- We were delighted to receive as members of this congregation eight persons who placed membership with our family: Dennis and Dianna Kenaston, Terrell and Jill Boyett, Kristin Boyett, Beth Goodell, and Katrina and Opal Bracewell.
- We had a Gospel meeting with Barry Hudson in the Fall. After canceling three meetings over the past two years, it was wonderful to begin having meetings again.
- We planned for our annual sing and diligently spread the word about it; and, recently held it as one of the best I have ever shared in. 88 persons attended, 16 song leaders led songs, and it was great to do that after missing it in 2021.

2021 Events and Work

- We have had challenging Bible studies in the adult Bible classes. Steve Melton and Scott Black have taught the adult Bible classes on a Comparison of the Old Law and the Law of Christ, as well as our current study on the Holy Spirit. We have also studied the Book of Romans and the Wisdom Literature.
- Our Thursday Indepth Bible class was weekly during the bulk of the COVID crisis; however, we returned to holding it every other week. We typically have about ten persons in live attendance, and about 15 who view the live stream. However, within a week, we have between 70 and 100 persons who view the class online.

2021 Events and Work

- We currently have an archive of over 200 videos of Bible classes and sermons on Facebook available to anyone who wants to view them.
- We updated our website, and according to the raw data get tens of thousands of hits on it per year.
- Our daily Bible message has grown to well over a thousand, and we get an average of 180 views per day including an average of 6 shares.
- Our world has changed; electronic media is the way people are most commonly reached today. At the same time, personal, face to face contact is still the most effective.

2021 Events and Work

- We engaged a few physical work projects:
 - Jay Winger cleaned the outside of the building.
 - We had a work party to level the parking lot.
 - Max Campbell and Andy Castle take care of mowing the lawn.
 - And what often goes unnoticed, but should never go unmentioned: the sisters in this congregation have cleaned it every week and maintain it beautifully; and every week the communion is carefully prepared without fail.
 - We had a major repair on the air conditioning system by Caleb Moyer.

2021 Events and Work

- We engaged a few physical work projects:
 - There were a number of minor repairs made by volunteers.
 - Jill Campbell along with several volunteers upgraded the supplemental song book.
 - Max and Jill have done the work of providing pictures and updated information for our new directory soon to be published and distributed.
 - And what is often taken for granted: Max and Jill arrive early to open up the building, and Scott Black lingers afterward to close it.

2021 Events and Work

- This is a fact that is often unstated but should be repeated often: The bulk of all the work of a local church is not done by the evangelist; his role is only a minor portion of the sum total of all of the work accomplished. By a wide margin, most of the work of a local church is done by volunteers, members who give of their time and energy to do the countless things that need doing. The work of elders, deacons, teachers, song leaders, treasurer, members who encourage each other and share the Gospel with others, and all of those who give untold hours to maintain a place of assembly is done by unpaid workers in the Kingdom of our Lord. And in my experience, never has that been manifested better than it has been here. God bless you for this!

 - Highest was 60 on 7/18; Lowest was 26 on 3/7

- Wednesday attendance average was 25
 - This represents a 40% drop in attendance over Sunday morning. We can do much better.

Supporting Evangelism in 2021

- We suspended our support for evangelists until such time as we grow in number and offering. At that time, this congregation will resume that good work.

Supporting Local Edification in 2021

- One Gospel Meeting (Barry Hudson in Fall)
- Three additional men received compensation for preaching: Andy Brenton, Theron Smith, and Jesse Flowers

2021 Operational Expenses

- Total expenditures - $91,348.09
- Total for preaching and teaching - $81,532.22
- Operational Expenses - $9,815.87 (11% of total expenditures)
 - Operational Expenses: maintenance, utilities, cleaning supplies, insurance, repairs, replacements, and miscellaneous

2021 Limited Benevolence

- There were no benevolent needs that required use of the local church treasury to relieve.
- There were individual benevolent efforts by kind hearted and generous disciples here. Some known to me; most are known only to the persons involved and the Lord.

Policy of Financial Disclosure

- Jay Wininger, who serves this congregation as treasurer, generates a monthly financial report distributed in the business meetings, and it details every use made of the offering to the Lord in this place. We wish for all to be informed of the fact that all uses of the offerings are limited to scripturally authorized activities for the church.

Upcoming Works for 2022

- It is our hope that we will continue to increase in number, both by encouraging our own members to return to worship who have yet come back, as well as reach out to others and gather them into our family here.
- We are planning two Gospel meetings for this year, and will be planning meetings for coming years as well.
- Other works we can consider are a VBS, et al
- We encourage in home Bible study efforts to continue as well as to grow in the number of persons involved.
- We are planning to continue to handle our own minor repairs, which will require volunteers.
- As always, we strongly encourage you to be diligent in efforts to find persons with whom you can share the Gospel.

Psalm 133:1 - “Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brethren to dwell together in unity!”
