“Many fine Bible students differ over what this gift is, but it seems most logical that it is the sanctifying, renovating influence of the Spirit – not in a miraculous way, but through His influence on our lives through the word. The result of this magnificent gift is our transformation (Romans 12:2), our partaking of the divine nature (II Peter 1:4). It is through the Spirit and His work of revelation that God makes His light to shine upon us. It is through the Spirit's influence upon us that we are able to become all we can be in God's plan.” Bob and Sandra Waldron
