

Report of the 2023 Work of the Trilacoochee church of Christ

Report of the 2023 Work of the Trilacoochee church Of Christ

- Authorized by God,
- How the work of the Lord is to be supported,
- The uses made of the contribution as instructed in The New Testament,
- How Evangelism is to be supported,
- How Edification and Limited Benevolence are to be supported,
- The scriptures authorize a public report of the work of the local church.

How the Work is Supported

- The work of the Lord is supported by the freewill offerings of Christians, as instructed in the Word.
 - 2Cor. 8:1-5 - “Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God.”

How the Work is Supported

- The members of this congregation do so with purpose of heart, pleased to do the will of God without public acknowledgement.
 - Matt. 6:1-4 - “Take heed that you do not do your charitable deeds before men, to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. Therefore, when you do a charitable deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory from men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward. But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.”

The Uses Made Of The Contribution As Instructed In The New Testament

- Evangelism: teaching the Gospel to the lost,
- Edification: building up Christians through preaching and teaching (includes providing and maintaining a place for worship and Bible study),
- Limited Benevolence: ministering to the physical needs of poor saints.

How Evangelism is Supported

- Phil. 4:16-17 - “For even in Thessalonica you sent aid once and again for my necessities. Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that abounds to your account.”
- 2Tim. 2:2 - “And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

How Evangelism is Supported

- But how are we to fund the preaching of the Gospel?
- What are the scripturally authorized means and methods of supporting the work of the church?
 - 1Cor. 16:1-2 - “Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: On the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside, storing up as he may prosper, that there be no collections when I come.”

2Corinthians 8:1-6

- “Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2 that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. 3 For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, 4 imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5 And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well.”

2Corinthians 8:7-12

- “But as you abound in everything--in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us--see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich. 10 And in this I give advice: It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and were desiring to do a year ago; 11 but now you also must complete the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to desire it, so there also may be a completion out of what you have. 12 For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what one has, and not according to what he does not have.”

How Edification is Supported

- But who is to support this work and who is to do this work?
- Do the scriptures supply a plan?

How Edification is Supported

- Every member of a local congregation has a Christ-ordained role and purpose.
 - Eph. 4:11-13, 16 - “And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ... 16 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love.”

The Bible Authorizes a Public Report

- Do the scriptures authorize a public report of the work of the local church?
- Should we keep these matters hidden or speak openly of them?

The Bible Authorizes a Public Report

- Acts 14:21-23, 26-27 - “And when they had preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, ‘We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God.’ So when they had appointed elders in every church, and prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed... 26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. Now when they had come and gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.”

2023 Events and Work

- We rejoiced at the baptisms of Chandy and Maria Jacobs and Don and Eila Meusing -- four new members of our family.
- We witnessed a few fallen disciples restored by confession.
- We were delighted to receive as members of this congregation persons who placed membership with our family: John & June Krenzelok, Tom & Michelle Weatherly, Hannah & Rebekah Richardson, Elijah Dean, Lilly Sullivan, and as of today, Jared Sink and Olivia Dann -- ten new members of our family.
- Sadly, we were compelled to exercise local church discipline for two who departed the faith: Verlyn Bullington and Teri Walker.
- In addition, Ron & Janice Byers began worshiping with us after assembling in Brooksville for a time.
- We mourned the passing of our dear sister Martha Laine in November, and others among our extended family and friends.

2023 Events and Work

- We had two Gospel Meetings with Kent Heaton in the Spring and with Jeff Himmel in the Fall.
- We planned for our annual sing and diligently spread the word about it; and, recently held it with a considerable number of folks from neighboring congregations and lot of young folks from Florida College. 144 in attendance; very likely a record attendance for Trilacoochee.
- Until he became ill last fall, we had the custom of having Doug Sanders present a sermon on fifth Sunday evenings, for which I am grateful (four times each year). We look forward to him recovering enough to resume.
- We also enjoy the practice of having many different brethren present Wednesday invitations. We look forward to encouraging others to participate as well.

2023 Events and Work

- We were delighted to hear Haden Black present a sermon recently and look forward to hearing more.
- We have had challenging Bible studies in the adult Bible classes. We are currently studying Ephesians through 2Thessalonians, and The Life that is to Come.
- Our Thursday Indepth Bible class on second and fourth weeks each month typically has about fifteen persons in live attendance, and about ten who view the live stream. However, within a week, we have between 150 and 300 persons who view the class online.
- The Women's Bible Study meets on first and third Thursday afternoons each month at the Melton residence and usually has fifteen or more in attendance. At present, Katrina Bracewell is directing this class.

2023 Events and Work

- We currently have an archive of over 900 videos of Bible classes and sermons on Facebook available to anyone who wants to view them. We average between 80 and 400 viewers each week.
- We updated our website, and according to the raw data get over 110,000 hits on it per year. All sermon recordings, including outlines and charts, all classes, invitations, and bulletins are uploaded weekly.
- Our daily Bible message has grown to well over 1,700, and we get an average of 200+ views per day including an average of six shares.
- Our world has changed; electronic media is the way people are most commonly reached today. Here at Trilacoochee, we seem to have made the transition well. However, personal, face to face contact is still the most effective means to reach people.

2023 Events and Work

- Without prompting or specific organization, the family here looks out for each other. When someone is ill or injured, someone, and often several, take the initiative to send them a message, or a card, or a call to encourage and let them know that they are loved. Their needs will be addressed, whether food, rides to the doctor, or help at home. This is a true manifestation of benevolence and love, and is as an important part of the authorized work of a church family as is evangelism and edification.
- We experienced an increase in our attendance over the years of 2019 through 2022. Our increase over the past year has been substantial and consistent.
- We noted a considerable increase in our offerings in 2023.

2023 Events and Work

- We engaged a few physical work projects:
- We installed window blinds and removed dead trees from the parking area.
- Jay Winger cleans the outside of the building, he and Wendi installed the window blinds, and they prepare and provide the monthly financial reports.
- Work parties are eagerly attended to take care of maintenance. There were work parties to take care of repairs, improvements, and maintenance on the building.

2023 Events and Work

- Max Campbell, Andy Castle, and John Krenzelok take care of mowing the lawn as volunteers.
- What often goes unnoticed, but should never go unmentioned -- the members of this congregation clean the building every week and maintain it beautifully -- as volunteers.
- And, every week the communion is carefully prepared without fail.

2023 Events and Work

- Max & Jill Campbell, Dianna Kenaston, and Donna Heiden have done the work of providing pictures and updating information for our new directory soon to be published and distributed.
- They have taken over the work of printing and binding our handmade class books as well.
- And what is often taken for granted: Max and Jill arrive early to open up the building, and Scott Black lingers afterward to close it.
- Scott Black also keeps the records and uploads them to the members' area of our website.

2023 Events and Work

- This is a fact that often goes unstated but should be repeated frequently: The bulk of all the work of a local church is not done by the evangelist; his role is only a minor portion of the sum total of all of the work accomplished. By a wide margin, most of the work of a local church is done by volunteers, members who give of their time and energy to do the countless things that need doing. The work of elders, deacons, teachers, song leaders, treasurer, members who encourage each other and share the Gospel with others, and all of those who give untold hours to maintain a place of assembly is done by unpaid workers in the Kingdom of our Lord. And in my experience, never has that been manifested better than it has been here. God bless you for this!

The Work of Volunteers

- Select scriptures for Sunday readings
- Maintain emergency call list
- Add prayer list and notifications to Facebook page
- Escort elderly and disabled in and out of the building

 - Lowest was 39 on 1/1
 - This represents an average increase of 7 persons per Sunday AM service.
- Sunday evening average attendance was 41, an average increase of 2 over the previous year.
 - Represents a 28% drop from morning. This is good in view of the fact that most congregations with a Sunday evening service have a 40% drop in attendance. However, we can do better.
 - Highest was 55 on 4/2 & 12/10; Lowest was 23 on 2/26

 - This represents a 37% drop in attendance over Sunday morning. We must do better.
 - Highest was 44 on 2/1; Lowest was 22 on 2/22.
- Moral issues created by live streaming:
 - It is not a substitute for assembling for worship.
 - It creates an opportunity for dishonesty for some.

 - 2019 Sunday AM 53; PM 41; Wednesday 33
 - 2020 N/A (no report prepared and delivered)

- It is evident that we are growing in number. Attendance averages for October 2023 through January 2024 represents an even greater increase.

2023 Attendance

- Visitors -- We had over 830 visits from persons who are not members of this congregation.
 - Many of the visits were from members of the church and their families.
 - Non-member visitors received follow up contact when possible.
- Average of 16 visitors per week, with 5 visitors per service.

2023 Attendance

- Total expenditures = $96,844.07 representing a gain of $30,109.41
 - Monthly average expenditures - $8,070.03
 - Weekly average expenditures - $1,827.25 (53 Sundays)

Supporting Evangelism in 2023

- We suspended our support for evangelists until such time as we grow in number and offering. At that time, this congregation will resume that good work. At the current rate of growth with which God has blessed us, that should be soon.

Supporting Local Edification in 2023

- Two 2023 Gospel Meetings: Spring - Kent Heaton; Fall - Jeff Himmel
- Two additional men received compensation for preaching: Andrew McPherson and Jesse Flowers.
- Total for Gospel Meetings and guest speakers: $3,230.81
- Total for class materials, Internet, and livestreaming of classes and services - $2,031.98
- Paul Blake's salary as evangelist
- Total for local edification in 2023 - $83,437.78
- As a percentage of total expenses - 86%. That means that 86 cents of every dollar contributed goes for preaching and teaching the word of God in this community. In 47 years of preaching in seven congregations, I have never seen percentages near that.

2023 Operational Expenses

- Total expenditures - $96,844.07
- Operational expenses - $13,406.29 (14% of total expenditures)
 - Operational expenses: electric - $3,293.60, maintenance supplies - 1,241.84, insurance - $4,380.78, and miscellaneous.
 - In addition, we installed window blinds - $1,090.07, and removed two dead trees from the parking area - $3,400.00.

2023 Limited Benevolence

- There were no benevolent needs that required use of the local church treasury to relieve.
- There were multiple individual benevolent efforts by kind hearted and generous disciples here. Some known to me; most are known only to the persons involved and the Lord.

Policy of Financial Disclosure

- Jay Wininger, who serves this congregation as treasurer, generates a monthly financial report distributed in the business meetings, and it details every use made of the offering to the Lord in this place. We wish for all to be informed of the fact that all uses of the offerings are limited to scripturally authorized activities for the church.

Upcoming Works for 2024

- We are working toward appointing more elders and deacons to serve with those who already labor here in those works.
- Currently Steve Melton, Larry Winn, Scott Black, and Paul Blake serve as elders. Sam Cooper and Jay Winger serve as deacons.
- We are in the midpoint of the careful and prayerful work of seeking men to fill those works. 22 members have made their recommendations for men they believe to be qualified.
- Each of these men will be visited beginning today by two or three witnesses to inquire the following: 1) Do you believe you are qualified to serve as an elder or deacon? And 2) Are you willing to undertake this work of the Lord for this congregation?
- Following this, the names that remain will be presented to the congregation to consider whether any scriptural objections can be raised against their service.

Upcoming Works for 2024

- It is our hope that we will continue to increase in number, both by encouraging our own members to attend more faithfully, as well as reach out to others and gather them into our family here.
- We are planning two Gospel meetings for this year, and will be planning meetings for coming years as well. Spring Gospel Meeting is May 12-17, 2023 with Mark Copeland. Fall meeting is with Brent Lewis on November 17-22, 2024.
- We will complete our studies in Ephesians through 2Thessalonians on Sunday mornings, with Steve Melton and Scott Black teaching Colossians through 2Thessalonians.
- We will complete our study of The Life that is to Come on Wednesday. Following these studies, the elders will choose more Bible studies. Requests are welcomed.

Upcoming Works for 2024

- We encourage in home Bible study efforts to continue as well as to grow in the number of persons involved.
- We will continue to handle our own minor repairs, maintenance, and cleaning, which will require volunteers. We have never seemed to have a shortage of volunteers here at Trilacoochee.
- In view of the healthy and substantial offerings of the disciples here, we will consider whether we can offer some support to evangelists in other places.
- As always, we strongly encourage you to be diligent in efforts to find persons with whom you can share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- May the Lord richly bless us with opportunities to glorify Him in this community, and may we eagerly embrace and engage them.

Psalm 133:1 - “Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!”
